

WILSON ACTS IN POLE CRISIS

SEVEN KILLED AS RACES CLASH

ILLINOIS TOWN IN MOB CONTROL

Riot Follows Arrest of Foreigners
On Murder Charge

TORCH APPLIED TO HOMES

Troops Rushed to Scene As City
Officials Are Seized

MARION, Ill.—(By United Press)—Seven are dead and 65 wounded, according to latest reports from West Frankfort, where a race riot is in progress. The mob is still in control of the town. Reports from West Frankfort, Friday morning.

The fighting between Italian residents and a mob composed of other citizens of the town was reported to be still under way.

The mob began burning the homes of foreigners about 11 o'clock Thursday night. They destroyed all automobiles, seized telegraph and telephone lines and established a censorship to prevent news of their activity from reaching the outside.

Foreigners in West Frankfort and Marion, are rushing out of the towns. The mob ordered the mayor and Italians to leave the town within 24 hours.

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSED

The mob formed early Thursday. Managers, city clerks and employees joined the ranks. Shops and business houses were closed. The mob was determined to drive every foreigner out of the city. State Attorney Roy Martin pleaded with the mob to desist.

With its ranks being swelled by new arrivals as it moved along, the mob stormed the foreign settlement and set fire to the houses of foreigners. Every house in Frankfort heights, the foreign settlement, was reported destroyed, while many homes of foreigners in other parts of the city, were set on fire.

YOUTHS KIDNAPED

The youths had been kidnaped Monday when it was learned they were about to reveal information to the police implicating several foreigners in West Frankfort, with a series of recent robberies.

Settino Desensis, a Sicilian, was arrested late Wednesday in connection with the kidnaping. He was taken to the Marion jail. A mob of 150 formed in West Frankfort and left for Marion by automobile.
Before they arrived the prisoner was spirited away by the authorities.

Two other men were arrested late Thursday in connection with the crime. The mob stormed the jail and demanded the prisoners. When the authorities refused, the mob demanded that a committee from among them be allowed to question the men. This was granted.

PRISONERS MOVED

The committee returned to report to the mob. The prisoners were spirited out of the jail and rushed in automobiles from the town. The burning of foreigners' homes started.
Every road was soon crowded with foreigners attempting to escape.
Many were carrying household goods. Some drove cattle ahead of them.

Louis Calcaterra, father of one of the murdered boys, swore out a warrant charging Desensis with the kidnaping. Desensis was arrested by the chief of police. It was brought out at the inquest over the bodies that Desensis admitted having West Frankfort for Royaltown last Monday. He declared he did not know that the boys had been kidnaped.

she accused of stealing $185 and a under her pillow, was gone when she went after it. Mullett was held for the grand jury.

Mrs. Orr is a Canadian by birth.
She was living in Kentucky at the time of the Civil War, her husband

GEORGE F. BURBA DIES SUDDENLY

Editor and Cox's Former Secretary Expires at Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—(By Associated Press)—George F. Burba, editorial writer for the Columbus Dispatch, and at one time private secretary to Governor Cox, died very suddenly Friday morning at his home here.

Mr. Burba had been in apparently good health and had worked Thursday. When he arose Friday morning, he complained to Mrs. Burba of a slight pain in his left shoulder and later laid down. Mrs. Burba, growing anxious, called a physician who arrived as he was dying. The physician attributed death to an acute heart attack.

Mr. Burba was 52 years of age.
He was born at Hodgenville, Ky.,
where his mother, aged 89 years, and a brother John, still live. Another brother, Howard, lives at Dayton. He has one son, George F., junior.

No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

TRIBUTE BY COX

DAYTON.—(By Associated Press)—
Governor James M. Cox, when told of the death of George Burba, who was formerly editor of the governor's newspaper at Dayton and Springfield, said:

"George Burba was one of the kindest spirits I ever knew." He was associated with our papers for several years, and was my companion in the North woods and the Southern fields. He was a true sportsman, a great lover and student of nature and in every community in which he labored professionally, he developed an enthusiastic outdoor spirit. He was idolized by children, which is the rarest tribute to any one. His philosophy ran through his writings. He met life's problems with a joyfulness that was infectious, and he left his task without illness—just as he many times told me he would desire to go.
His friends cover our state, and he will be mourned by thousands of his readers."

KIDNAPERS HIRED TO STEAL BABE

Woman Wanted Coughlin Child
For Her Own

PHILADELPHIA.—(By United Press)—August Pesco, held in connection with the kidnaping of Baby Blakely Coughlin at Norritonton, was hired by a woman to steal
the baby, authorities declared Friday.
They said the woman wanted the baby to satisfy a mother's love and paid the alleged kidnaper.

The actual kidnaper, they claimed, took advantage of the opportunity to blackmail the child's father, obtaining $12,000 on an unfilled promise to return the child while Blakely was really in custody of the woman.
Pesco has been questioned practically constantly during the 80 hours since his arrest at Egg Harbor, N. J.
He made some important admissions, but has steadfastly denied knowledge of the whereabouts of the child, officials announced. They are convinced, however, that the child is alive and is held by a woman
here.

While the jail in which he was being confined was still kept secret for fear of mob violence by friends of the Coughlin family, it was reported the prisoner had been transferred to state police barracks at Lancaster from a jail in a southern New Jersey town.

LOVESICK MAN JUMPS FROM TOWER TO DEATH

FARMINGDALE, L. I.—Unusually in love, Louis Schelman, twenty-seven years old, committed suicide by climbing to the top of a seventy-foot water tower and jumping off.
He was a student at the New York
State Farm School and an ex-soldier.
It was said at the school that several letters showed Schelman had been the unsuccessful suitor of a widow.

G. O. P. SPLITS ON PORCH ROCK

Harding Insists Public Come to Him at Marion

MANY ADVISERS OPPOSE

Fear Lack of Enthusiasm Needed to Bring "Pilgrims"

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—(By United Press)—To front-porch or not.
This question has of late been agitating the Harding camp at Marion more than the league of nations, the woman suffrage fight in Tennessee or even the "surprise insert" which Governor Cox promises for his acceptance speech at the 11th hour.

Incidentally, it has revealed certain qualities of stick-to-it-iveness in the Republican candidate for the presidency that some folks hadn't hitherto suspected, as well as developed the first real difference among the party managers since the campaign started.

In the past week increasing pressure has been brought to bear upon Senator Harding, if not to abandon at least materially to modify his front-porch program in favor of speech-making tours through the country that will bring him into closer personal contact with the voters, especially in states where votes are most needed.

But so far the candidate has not been induced to recede to any extent from his original position of making his campaign principally on Mount-Vernon-ave, Marion. Shortly after his nomination, Harding announced his willingness to deliver a limited number of addresses in important centers, but he repeatedly refused suggestions of extensive wildfire tours to the accompaniment of rear-platform spell binding.

WILSON ACTS IN POLE CRISIS

SEVEN KILLED AS RACES CLASH

ILLINOIS TOWN IN MOB CONTROL

Riot Follows Arrest of Foreigners On Murder Charge

TORCH APPLIED TO HOMES

Troops Rushed to Scene As City Officials Are Seized

MARION, Ill.—(By United Press)—Seven are dead and 65 wounded, according to latest reports from West Frankfort, where a race riot is in progress. The mob is still in control with the militia last reported leaving Mount Vernon, 50 miles from West Frankfort, Friday morning.

The fighting between Italian residents and a mob composed of other citizens of the town was reported to be still under way.

The mob began burning the homes of foreigners about 11 o'clock Thursday night. They dismantled all authorities, seized telegraph and telephone lines and established a censorship to prevent news of their activity from reaching the outside.

Foreigners in West Frankfort and Marion, are rushing out of the town. The mob ordered the mayor and Italians to leave the town within 24 hours.

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSED

The mob formed early Thursday. Managers, city clerks and employees joined the ranks. Shops and business houses were closed. The mob was determined to drive every foreigner out of the city. State's Attorney J. W. Martin pleaded with the mob to desist.

With its ranks being swelled by new arrivals as it moved along, the mob stormed the foreign settlement and set fire to the houses of foreigners. Every house in Frankfort Heights, the foreign settlement, was reported destroyed, while many homes of foreigners in other parts of the city, were set on fire.

The bodies of Amel Calaterra, 14, and Tony Hemphill, 20, their throats cut, bullet wounds in their heads and buried in shallow graves, were found by squirrel hunters late Tuesday.

YOUTHS KIDNAPED

The youths had been kidnaped Monday when it was learned they were about to reveal information to the police implicating several foreigners in West Frankfort, with a series of recent robberies.

One of the prisoners, a chauffeur, told of driving Desens and the two boys from West Frankfort to Royalton last Monday. He declared he did not know that the boys had been kidnaped.

PRISONERS MOVED

The committee returned to report to the mob. The prisoners were moved out of the jail and rushed in automobiles from the town. The burning of foreigners' homes started. Every road was soon crowded with foreigners attempting to escape. Many were carrying household goods. Some drove cattle ahead of them.

Louis Calaterra, father of one of the murdered boys, swore out a warrant charging Desens with the kidnaping. Desens was arrested by the chief of police. It was brought out at the request of the bodies that Desens admitted leaving West Frankfort for Royalton with the two boys. He declared they returned that evening. Other testimony brought out that Desens was suspected of complicity in the robbery of the Valley State Bank at Valley, Ill.

Calaterra was believed to have threatened to tell the authorities what he knew of the case. Desens is accused of inducing young Hemphill to force the Italian boy to leave West Frankfort. Hemphill was evidently shot first and his throat cut. The bodies were buried close to each other in a dry creek bed which is seldom traveled.

CATCHES SKILLGALLEE

WHATEVER THAT MAY BE

BOSTON.—Captain Lou Sears brought a skillgallee to market in his schooner the Funcher, the first one that hove to the Boston market for many years. The skillgallee is a half brother of the swordfish, but has a longer sword and a pocket along his spinal column in which he stows his dorsal fin when he is not using it in his business.

He is also darker in color and built on a more racy model than the swordfish. The big fish sold for $120.

WOMAN 108 YEARS OLD APPEARS AGAINST NEPHEW

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—A woman one hundred and eight years old, Mrs. Sophia Orr, appeared in Police Court here as a witness against her nephew, Harvey W. Mullett, whom she accused of stealing $185 and a copper washbowl. She told her story in a straightforward way and said she saw Mullett come out of her bedroom. The money, which was under her pillow, was gone when she went after it. Mullett was held for the grand jury.

Mrs. Orr is a Canadian by birth. She was living in Kentucky at the time of the Civil War, her husband being in the Union Army. She remembers several battles near her home.

GEORGE F. BURBA DIES SUDDENLY

Editor and Cox's Former Secretary Expires at Columbus

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press).—George F. Burba, editorial writer for the Columbus Dispatch, and at one time private secretary to Governor Cox, died very suddenly Friday morning at his home here.

Mr. Burba had been in apparently good health and had worked yesterday. When he arose Friday morning, he complained to Mrs. Burba of a slight pain in his left shoulder and later laid down. Mrs. Burba, growing anxious, called a physician who arrived as he was dying. The physician attributed death to an acute heart attack.

Mr. Burba was 52 years of age. He was born at Mountglen, Ky., where his mother, aged 89 years, and a brother John, still live. Another brother, Howard, lives in Dayton. He has one son, George F. Jr., at Mountglen.

No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

TRIBUTE BY COX

DAYTON.—(By Associated Press).—Governor James M. Cox, when told of the death of George Burba, who was formerly editor of the governor's newspaper at Dayton and Springfield, said:

"George Burba was one of the kindest spirits I ever knew. He was associated with our papers for several years and was my companion in the North woods and the Southern fields. He was a true sportsman, a great lover and student of nature, and in every community in which he labored professionally, he developed an enthusiastic outdoor spirit. He was idolized by children, which is the rarest tribute to any one. His philosophy ran thru his writings. He met life's problems with a joyfulness that was infectious, and he left his task without illness—just as he many times has told me he would desire to go. His friends cover our state, and he will be mourned by thousands of his readers."

KIDNAPERS HIRED TO STEAL BABE

Woman Wanted Coughlin Child For Her Own

PHILADELPHIA.—(By United Press).—August Poesel, held in connection with the kidnaping of Baby Blakely Coughlin at Norristown, was hired by a woman to steal the baby, authorities declared Friday. They said the woman wanted the baby to satisfy a mother's love and pain the alleged kidnaper.

The actual kidnaper, they claimed, took advantage of the opportunity to blackmail the child's father, obtaining $12,000 on an unfulfilled promise to return the child while Blakely was really in custody of the woman. Poesel has been questioned practically constantly during the 80 hours since his arrest at Egg Harbor, N. J. He made some important admissions, but has steadfastly denied knowledge of the whereabouts of the child, officials announced. They are convinced, however, that the child is alive and is held by a woman here.

While the jail in which he was being confined was still kept secret for fear of mob violence by friends of the Coughlin family, it was reported the prisoner had been transferred to state police barracks at Lancaster from a jail in a southern New Jersey town.

LOVESICK MAN JUMPS FROM TOWER TO DEATH

FARMINGDALE, L. I.—Unsuccessful in love, Louis Schelman, twenty-seven years old, committed suicide by climbing to the top of a seventy-foot water tower and jumping off.

He was a student at the New York State Farm School and an ex-soldier. It was said at the school that several letters showed Schelman had been the unsuccessful suitor of a widow.

G. O. P. SPLITS ON PORCH ROCK

Harding Insists Public Come to Him at Marion

MANY ADVISERS OPPOSE

Fear Lack of Enthusiasm Needed to Bring "Pilgrims"

COLUMBUS, Ohio.—(By United Press).—To front-porch or not. This question has of late been agitating the Harding camp at Marion more than the league of nations, the woman suffrage fight in Tennessee or even the "surprise insert" which Governor Cox promises for his acceptance speech at the 11th hour.

Incidentally, it has revealed certain qualities of stick-to-it-iveness in the Republican candidate for the presidency that some folks hadn't hitherto suspected, as well as developed the first real difference among the party managers since the campaign started.

In the past week increasing pressure has been brought to bear upon Senator Harding, if not to abandon, at least materially to modify, his front-porch program in favor of speech-making tours throughout the country that will bring him into closer personal contact with the voters, especially in states where votes are most needed.

But so far, the candidate has not been induced to recede to any extent from his original position of making his campaign principally on Mount Vernon-ave, Marion. Shortly after his nomination, Harding announced his willingness to deliver a "limited number" of addresses in important centers; but he has repeatedly turned down suggestions of extensive touring to the accompaniment of rear-platform spell binding.

MINORITY FOR PORCH

The front porch element, although in decided minority, have one distinct advantage in the fact that the candidate himself is one of them, but the anti-front-porchers who apparently have steadily increased in numbers, believe they have all the other arguments. The result is bound to be interesting as showing just how much the candidate has to say about the methods of conducting his own campaign.

Nearly every Republican leader who has visited Marion recently, has advised him strongly to adopt the travel plan. Also contending that the country is overwhelming Republican at the moment, they are admittedly fearful of the consequences, if Cox carries out his project of personal intensive vote cultivation in all parts of the union, unless Harding can be induced finally to apply similar methods.

ENTHUSIASM LACKING

They have pointed out also the apparent lack of popular enthusiasm for the front-porch idea. Although a notification day at Marion was a huge success, the front porch delegations since then have been much smaller in size than had been expected. Wednesday's delegation from Wayne-co, was only about half as large as hoped for, and now word is coming in from other sections from which pilgrimages had been planned of the difficulty encountered in recruiting a respectable showing.

Largely on account of the present high cost of railroad fares and its early prospective increase. In this connection the anti-front-porchers are not at all disposed to criticize the Interstate Commerce Commission—although under a Democratic administration—for thus leading them moral support by arranging for the higher fares.

Some of the leaders in pressing their point, have even boldly hinted that in insisting upon the people coming to him instead of his going to them, Senator Harding is overlooking the fact that this involves the expenditure of time and money inconsistent with Republican ideas of economy of increased production.

CANNERS APPEAL

Face Coal Lack. Ask Priority Ruling From U. S.

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press).—Ohio canners are still facing a lack of coal with which to operate their plants, according to Roy Irons, secretary of the Ohio Canners Association who has returned from Washington where he attempted to have the canneries classed with public utilities in order to gain advantage of the coal priority order. The Interstate Commerce Commission took his plea under advisement. Nearly all of the 60 members of the association, Irons said, have their plants lying idle.

RALEIGH, N. C.—Miss Dorcas Griffin, Big Laurel, Madison-co. North Carolina, died, aged 117 years, according to announcement by board of vital statistics.

BISHOP J. J. HARTLEY IS RECEIVED BY POPE

ROME.—Monsignor James J. Hartley, bishop of the diocese of Columbus, Ohio, was received in audience Friday by Pope Benedict, who showed a keen interest in the political situation, especially the presidential campaign, in America. During the day Monsignor Jean Antoine Duenas, bishop of San Salvador, was received by the pope, and related to the pontiff a report of the progress of the church in that republic.

COX'S 'SURPRISE' DEEP MYSTERY

Insert in Acceptance Speech to be "Real News"

DAYTON.—(By United Press).—The much-heralded "big surprise" of Governor James M. Cox's speech of acceptance Saturday, is still a "deep dark mystery."

All that the governor will say is that he will have an insert to the text of his speech which may be "real news."

The text of the address has been sent in confidence to all the newspapers in the country, but just what the "mysterious insert" will be apparently only the governor himself knows.

Efforts of sleuthful reporters to obtain an inkling of what Cox is going to spring, have failed. All those close to the governor swear that they are in the dark. It's personal secrecy says it has not yet been dictated.

Several times recently he has been asked questions, in all sorts of indirect ways with the hope of obtaining a ray of light, but every time the answer has come with a chuckle and a broad smile.

MUCH SPECULATION

Friday was the center of interest of the notification ceremonies. Visiting Democrats began to arrive and the orators, as one of the first topics of conversation. Speculation included startling charges against Republican campaign funds, a new solution for the high cost of living and a challenge for a joint debate with Senator Harding, while strong rumors of Cox's resignation as governor in order to devote all his time to the campaign and a statement on the prohibition question.

That the nominee early in the campaign will seek to cause friction in the Republican party between the Taft and Johnson-Borah factions, was indicated by a statement Thursday night, in which he said that "We have every expectation that Judge Taft will urge Republicans in any state where a primary contest is on, for the nomination of a candidate for United States senator, to support the men who are in favor of the league of nations."

Several hundred shots were fired at the latter place, at which the two fatalities occurred. This mob did not disperse until well after midnight.

SAVED BY FRIENDS

While police were engaged in quelling these mobs, four street cars which had been waiting in a residential section for the trouble to abate were attacked by a crowd of 5,000 persons. The cars were overturned and the strike-breakers, after receiving a severe beating, sought refuge in the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception and were saved by intervention of priests until rescued by the police. An attempt was made to burn the cars, but serious damage by fire was prevented.

All during the evening Mayor Bailey, Governor Shoup, Chief of Police Hamilton Armstrong, who was injured earlier by a flying brick, and other city officials, were in conference at the state house considering the advisability of asking for federal troops. A decision was reached early Friday to rely on volunteers and special policemen, all of whom were claimed all responsibility for the strike duty.

A. H. Hurt, international organizer for the union, and President Stibbe of the local union in statements deplored the mob violence and disclaimed any responsibility for the strikers.

A crowd surrounded the city hall for a short time Thursday night and an angry mob was restrained from attacking the tramway building, where the majority of strike-breakers are housed, by an armed guard which protected every entrance and exit. Mr. Hurt announced that 200 armed men were kept at the darkened windows of the building with instructions to shoot if the police line below should give way.

Early Friday the mob still surrounded the building, but there was no sign of violence.

The company had 11 cars running Thursday and for the first time men and women were accepted as passengers. At times in the day the cars were crowded almost to the extent of the rush hours of normal times. One passenger was injured in the rioting.

TWO DIE, 34 HURT IN STRIKE RIOT

Fatal Clashes Follow Street Car Walkout in Denver

NEWSPAPER PLANT WRECKED

Property Destroyed—Priests Rescue Strike-Breakers

DENVER, Colo.—(By Associated Press).—Denver was quiet early Friday after a night of rioting on the part of street car strikers, their sympathizers and armed strike-breakers during which two persons were killed, 34 injured and thousands of dollars property damage incurred. Two thousand volunteer policemen are expected to prevent a recurrence of the trouble.

The rioting began late in the afternoon and it was not until 1 o'clock Friday morning that members of the mob which had kept police busy in various parts of the city for more than six hours had dispersed.

Eight street cars were wrecked, the office of the Denver Post partially demolished and damage done to car barns in widely separated sections of the city.

The riots followed the first successful effort of the tramway company to carry passengers on street cars manned by armed strike-breakers. Two cars were blocked by a motor truck just as a parade of strikers and sympathizers were passing. Some one threw a brick and the paraders attacked the cars and crews. Car windows were smashed, protective screens torn off and strike-breakers badly beaten before police could restore order. One man was shot in the foot.

NEWSPAPER PLANT WRECKED

The Denver Post was the next object of the mob's attack. That paper opposed the strike. Every window in the place was broken, presses hammered and sand thrown into the rollers; the business office was wrecked, records and fixtures being thrown into the street; the engraving room was demolished and type and linotype matrices scattered all over the composing room. The publishers said they would not attempt to publish Friday afternoon.

While the mob was still at the Post another crowd had gathered at the East Denver car barns and a third mob had attacked the South Denver barns where 150 strike-breakers who had arrived during the day, were housed.

Several hundred shots were fired at the latter place, at which the two fatalities occurred. This mob did not disperse until well after midnight.

ONE OHIO LANDLORD WHO LIKES THE KIDS

MANSPFIELD, Ohio.—"No one without children can rent this house, as I am not the 'kill your kids' kind."

This striking sentence appears in an ad.

In these days of "no children" houses renting the ad has caused quite a sensation.

The ad announced that F. B. Wise has a house for sale here, but it goes on to state that if not sold before August 1 he will offer to rent the house at $50 a month.

President Calls Conference of State Department Officials to Take Up War Situation Now Threatening All Europe—Parley Lasts More than Hour.

U. S. Learns of Treaty Alliance Between Russia and Austria—British Cabinet Decides to Resort to Arms Against the Bolsheviks.

WASHINGTON.—(By United Press).—President Wilson Friday called Secretary of State Colby and Under-Secretary Davis into conference with him at the White House on the Polish crisis. The conference lasted for more than an hour.

The officials brought all data in the hands of this government on the Polish situation to the conference. No announcement was made of the results of the conference.

Soviet Russia has made a treaty of alliance with Austria, according to government advices Friday.

This alliance has the greatest significance in connection with the Bolshevik offensive against Poland and Moscow's campaign for world revolution, in the opinion of officials and military men here.

Ostensibly, the treaty was supposed to be one for the repatriation of the prisoners of war of each country, but other of the provisions are of great significance and constitute a menace to the allies. Besides the provision for return of war prisoners the other articles of the treaty as reported officially to Washington, include:

"Austria agrees to remain neutral in any war against soviet Russia, specifically the Russo-Polish war—and pledges herself to prevent the shipment of any war materials thru her territory to the enemies of soviet Russia."

BRITAIN TO WAR ON THE RUSSIANS

LONDON.—11:30 a. m.—(By United Press).—It was semi-officially reported Friday that the British cabinet had decided to take action against Russia, which virtually amounts to war.

Premier Lloyd George considers that the Bolsheviks have broken faith in continuing their advance against Poland, it was stated.

The reported plan calls for the soviet government to be notified that British aid will continue to be sent to Poland until it is certain that Russia will grant Poland a just peace, after which the sending of this assistance will be stopped.

The cabinet was in session throughout the morning.

AMERICANS DEFEND WARSAW

WARSAW.—(By Associated Press).—Owing to the desperate situation on the front nearest Warsaw, the Kosciuszko squadron, the air force composed for the most part of Americans, attached to the Polish army, is being transferred from south front.

The squadron will aid in the defense of the Polish capital. The American consulate in Warsaw will be closed Friday and Consul Rankin is making preparations to depart Friday night. Most of the records already have been shipped away.

The American legation here is also prepared to close within a very few days. The legation employees have shifted their baggage to Camp Grappa, the emergency headquarters of the American typhus expedition, ready to move to CAPTAIN.

WARSAW.—(By Associated Press).—The defensive line east of Warsaw has been moved in several places according to reports from the front. Preparations have been begun for transferring the government if that move is necessitated by the Russian advance. The officials, however, still hope the soviet forces will be checked somewhere east of Vlodzis.

No announcement has been made as to what place the government would move to, but it is reported it would be possibly Czestochowa, 143 miles southwest of Warsaw, near the Silesian frontier.

Of the developments along the eastern defense line, the word from the front shows that after a halt, several days in which reinforcements were brought up and supplies forwarded along the river, the Bolsheviks forced crossings of the Bug at a number of places. At one point, southeast of Ostrov, the Soviet troops are reported to have crossed the river in large numbers.

SITUATION CENTRAL

LONDON.—While the actual military situation in Poland is not much clearer than it was Thursday, reports admitted to be critical. Reports, however, are in some respects contradictory and the precise degree of menace to Warsaw as a result of the recent Bolshevik advance cannot be estimated.

Reports Thursday stated the soviet armies had reached points 30 miles distant from the Polish capital, but later advices indicate they are twice that distance away, and that the soviet cavalry is far ahead of the infantry. A Warsaw dispatch to the Daily Mail states the Polish counter offensive on the southern front has been successful and that the Bolsheviks have been hurled back 45 miles.

Most newspapers express great anxiety over the situation this morning and the statement by a higher official yesterday that the present position is as grave as that in August, 1914, is given great prominence. Reports that the British government has already ordered the fleet to resume the blockade of Russia, which was partially raised last November, receive great emphasis in some journals.

FORESTS BLAZING

Fire Spreading Thru Montana and Canadian Woods

MISSOULA, Mont.—(By Associated Press).—The forest fire in the Montana and Canadian forests north of Missoula, Montana, is spreading rapidly and has reached an "alarming" size according to reports received at headquarters of forest service district No. 1. A large crew of fire fighters was sent to assist the seventy-five men already there.

A new fire was reported on Clear Creek in the Kootenai forest in Northern Idaho, and northeastern Washington. Private lumber companies have men assisting the fire fighters there.

AIRPLANE FIELD FOR LIMA

Mayor Favors Movement After Bond Issue Election

A flying field for Lima should be the next project for the Lima chamber of commerce to throw its support to after the improvement bond issue is carried according to Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt.

The establishment of a flying field is one of the biggest projects before the city of Lima at the present time. Mayor Burkhardt declared Friday. He said other cities throughout the country are taking steps to provide for air service in the future and that Lima has been "in taking the matter up."

"The only way the city could provide such a field," the mayor said, "would be by purchasing a field for a park and then allow its use for landing purposes."

In a letter received recently from Lieut. Lester Morse, U. S. A., who was the mayor's pilot on his airplane trip from Dayton to Cleveland, Burkhardt said it was recommended that all cities having race tracks place the name of the town in the center of the track in white letters about 12 feet high as a guide to airplane pilots. A race track, it was pointed out, is the most noticeable landmark in any town and if they were properly marked pilots would not lose their way so easily.

LIMA PHYSICIANS AT KALIDA MEETING

Dr. W. A. Wagner, 1045 W. Market st. read a very interesting paper on "The Acute Female Pelvic Infection" at the 17th annual meeting of the Putnam Medical Society held at Kalida, Ohio on August 7th. Dr. Charles Lukens, president of the State Medical Society gave the annual address. His subject was "Medical Organizations."

Lima doctors present at the meeting were Dr. W. T. McGriff, Dr. Herbert Thomas and Dr. Thilston.

MEN AND MATTERS

Harold Finch Lima has been listed in the 21st Infantry now stationed at Columbus. Samuel Brooks, Lima has been listed in the 20th Infantry now at Dallas, Texas. These two men are the first to enlist for foreign service in 6 months. Their regiments will sail shortly for the Rhine.

Lt. W. N. Todd, 7th Cavalry has just arrived from Fort Bliss, Texas, to relieve Capt. Russell from command of the Army recruiting station in this city. Capt. Russell will proceed to Marion, Mo. to take charge there.

RECORDS FOR FINEST BROKEN

All previous records of the city for collection of fines in the Lima criminal court were shattered for the period from Monday until Friday of this week. According to records of Clerk James I. Hefner, the city profited to the extent of $1,045 during this period. $10 was collected in state fines and $125 was paid to the city for licenses.

FATHER OF LIMA PEOPLE INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Harper Stiles, Waynefield, who was injured early in the week when he was run over by a wagon partly loaded with grain, was reported to be improving Friday.

Stiles is the father of C. E. Stiles, 778 Erie ave. and Mrs. Bertha Sellers, 503 Prospect ave.

MAINS ARE FLOODED

Carriers at the local postoffice if asked their opinion would be nearly unanimous in stating that they are not particularly fond of political campaign literature. The state that it were a little cooler, they might be and the impression that the Christmas holiday season had arrived. All of the mails are flooded at this time, and probably will be increased within the next few months, with literature put out by various candidates and the deluge of making carriers work overtime and carry heavily laden bags.

CENSUS FIGURES ARE DELAYED

Final Estimate Not Due Until About Sept. 15

WASHINGTON. — Announcement of the 1920 population of the United States will be made about September 15, meanwhile all estimates, semi-official or otherwise, are not authorized by the census bureau, Assistant Director of the Census W. M. Steuart announced.

"It is next to impossible to give an accurate estimate of the continental population of the United States because of insufficient data and the unusual disturbances to our population since 1910," said Steuart.

"Everybody believes the population in 1920 will be from 105 to 110 millions but the census bureau does not authorize the estimate," Steuart declared.

Officials in charge of tabulating the returns have stated the inability to determine an estimate in advance this year is due to unusual conditions during the decade that has past. They include the war casualties, deaths from influenza and the exodus of aliens during the period of the world war as well as curtailment of immigration.

More than 4,000,000 immigrants who would normally come to this country from Europe did not enter the United States during the ten years, according to immigration statistics.

Approximately 3,500,000 aliens left the country from 1910 to 1920 according to estimates.

Deaths due to influenza during the two epidemics totaled nearly 500,000. In a normal year, 1914, there were 6,000 deaths from this disease.

These factors are believed by officials to have rendered impossible an estimate based on comparing figures.

CUBA BOARD CAUSING INSANITY IN EUROPE

NEW YORK. — The Cuba board is causing as much insanity in Europe as here, according to Dr. J. Rudolph Katz, of Amsterdam, Holland, who arrived recently on the Holland-American line steamship Noordam. Dr. Katz, who is regarded as one of the foremost nerve specialists in the world, has come to the United States

Vigorous Men and Women are in Demand

If your ambition has left you, your happiness has gone forever unless you take advantage of the Enterprise Drug Co.'s magnificent offer to "refund" your money on the first box purchased of Wendell's Pills, Ambition Brand, do not put your system in the condition and give you the energy and vigor you have lost.

Be ambitious, be strong, be vigorous. Bring the ruddy glow of health to your cheeks and the right sparkle to your eyes.

Wendell's Pills, Ambition Brand, the great nerve tonic, are splendid for that tired feeling, nervous troubles, headaches, restlessness, trembling, mental depression, sleeplessness, nervous indigestion, and loss of appetite.

You take them with this understanding that in two days you will feel better, a week you will feel fine or after taking one box, if not benefited, the druggist will refund the price of the box.

Be sure and get a 60 cent box today and get out of the rut. Remember the Enterprise Drug Co. and dealers everywhere are authorized to guarantee them.

A Sure Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is the only one you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

primarily to visit in Boston, but while here he will give several lectures before medical societies.

He will speak on the latest cure for insanity, by the analysis of the dreams of the patient. Dr. Katz said that the idea is not new, but that its successful application is very recent.

BOYS KILLED BY O. E. CAR

Double Fatality at Crossing in Van Wert-Co Friday

Two young boys were instantly killed Friday morning about 7:15 o'clock, when an auto in which they were riding near Convoys, Van Wert, Co., was struck by an Ohio Electric car, eastward bound for Van Wert. A view of the railroad crossing is obstructed by an orchard and cornfield, and Ralph Freck, 15, driver of the car failed to see its approach until too late. With him in the auto was Waldo Stephenson, 13.

The two boys were enroute to the farm of young Stephenson's uncle, to assist in threshing. The auto was picked up by the car and crushed about 15 yards. Both bodies were mangled and bruised. The Freck boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Freck who reside three miles west of Convoys, while the Stephenson boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stephenson of Convoys. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

ADA—John Seper, 21, and Mrs. Ida Whitaker, 2, have died from measles. They reside in the Seibels Marsh region. Mrs. John M. Reed, former Ada resident, died in Blackwell, Okla.

Being Neighborly

The first savings association was started by a few neighbors with the idea of cooperation. None of the members were rich but each had a determination to save a little each month for the possible rainy day.

Their individual savings were not large enough for satisfactory investment, but by clubbing together they had enough to lend on one mortgage and help one family buy a home.

The idea has grown and is no longer a small community affair, but the spirit which prompted the first association of neighbors still actuates the better, more perfect institution.

The Allen County Savings and Loan Company, with assets of more than two million three hundred thousand dollars, has developed features in convenience and service that mean much to the depositor and the borrower. This service is of benefit every patron of the company and interest at the rate of five per cent is paid on large and small accounts.

The construction of a wall is necessary to support the sidewalk at this point, the engineer said. The estimated cost of the construction is $12,000. Miller said after bids are received the work will proceed.

JUDITH OF BLUE LAKE RANCH

By JACKSON GREGORY

In the beginning there had been in Bud Lee's mind but the one thought: This man had laid his hands upon Judith; this man must be punished by none other in God's wide world than Bud Lee. Now all cool thought had fled, leaving just hot desire to beat at that which beat at him, to strike down that which strove to strike him down, to master his enemy, to see the last, powerful body prone at his feet. Now he was fighting for that simplest, most potent reason in the world, just because he was fighting. And, tho he knew that he had found a man as quick and hard and strong as himself, still he told himself that he must fight a winning fight—there was some good reason why he must fight a winning fight.

His whole body was bruised and battered and sore, a glowing blow now shot him thru with pain. Trevors knew how to put his weight behind his blows, and his weight was well over two hundred pounds. It was like being hammered with a two-hundred-pound sledge.

Give and take it was from the first blow, with none of the fineness of the boxers' match, with less thought of escaping punishment than of inflicting it. More than once had Bud Lee felt that he was falling only to catch his balance and come back at Trevors; more than once had Trevors gone reeling backward, smashing into the wall. Many a time did Melvin count his money won and lost. And Carson, crouching now, tense, eager, a little fearful, muttered constantly to himself.

"They've both got the sand," grunted Melvin. "Which one draws the luck?"

But luck stood by and did not enter the battle that grew over hater as Bud Lee's and Trevors' gorge rose higher at every blow. It was to be simply the best man wins, and none of the six men who watched knew from the beginning until he end who the best man was. What tricks Trevors knew, he used, and they were met by what cunning lay in Bud Lee's strength, what resistance, what power to endure was in each panting body was called upon to the last reserve.

Already the spring had gone out of their steps. They came at each other for the most part of more slowly, more cautiously, but more determined not to give over. Faces glistening with sweat, grimy with dust, their hands pounded feet beat up from the floor, the hair of Lee's hair red where with a bloody hand he had pushed it back, Trevors' lips swollen and ugly, they fought on until the men who looked at them wondered just where lay the limits upon which each depended.

"Lee's tough," Carson whispered to himself. "Riding every day, an working—Trevors has been setting in a chair—Bud'll wear him out. My God! Bud, look out! Foot work!"

Yes, foot work, but not a Carson expected it, not the thing Bud Lee looked for when he sensed rather than read in Trevors' eyes that a fresh trick was coming. He was ready for a lifted boot and in a head, Trevors, rushing down upon him, threw his arms about him, headless of the fist, smashing again into his chest. Trevors doubled and twisted and got a grip about Lee's middle, seeking to throw him.

Down they went together with no particular advantage to either man. But as they rolled apart and Lee threw out an arm to lift himself, Trevors saw the chance he sought and mightily, brutally, cursing as he jumped up for it, he drove the heel of his boot down upon Lee's hand on the floor.

From Lee's white lips burst an involuntary groan as it seemed to him that every bone in his hand had been crushed, from Carson a choking cry of rage, from Trevors a shout of triumph as he called out shapely: "Hands off, Carson! Our fight—anyway—"

Again on their feet, Trevors a second time and with the advantage clearly his now rushed Lee, seeking to finish what he had begun. And Bud Lee, his face white and drawn, looking ghastly with the blood smeared across it, moving swiftly but not swift enough, went down, Trevors' weight against him, Trevors' fist beating into his side just below the arm-pit.

"Five-hundred on Trevors!" shouted Melvin. Carson did not hear him.

"At him Bud, go at him!" he was crying over and over. "That's the last dirty trick he's got. Get him, Buddie, Oh for God's sake, Buddie, go get him!"

Trevors was upon him again, but Lee slipped aside, even rolled over, managed to get to his feet. Again Trevors bore down upon him, a new leap in his eyes. Again the barely in time, Bud Lee slipped away from him. He drew Trevors' harsh laugh after him and Trevors' questioning eager fists. Lee put up his arm, his right arm, guarding his face, and drew away, back and back, Carson was almost whimpering, ceiling, whinnily.

"Stand up to him, Bud! Oh, go get him, Buddie!"

Still up and down the room they went, Trevors rushing at Lee, Lee taking what blows he must, striking out but little, seeking now only to pull himself together, to get his head clear of daze, and dizziness. Stepping backward, he again got the wall at his shoulders, slipped to one side, strove only to get the empty room behind him, succeeded and let Trevors drive him, drive until again his back was to a wall.

"Run away, will you?" panted Trevors. "I've got you, damn you. Got you right!"

Lee didn't answer. He was thinking fully that Bayne Trevors was near telling the truth and Bud Lee was almost beaten—almost. That was as far as gentleman, even went—just to that desperate "almost beaten." Not quite. Not not quite. Never that.

Both men were nearly spent; Carson saw that while he cursed softly in his corner; Melvin saw it and watched for the end, wondering just how it would come. Trevors should swing for the point of the far, put all that was in him into a final, smashing blow, beat thru an insufficient guard, do it now quickly. For both Melvin and Carson saw another thing, a thing which both had sensed at the outset; Bud Lee was harder than Bayne Trevors. Lee, slipping away at every step was getting something back which had nearly gone from him; Trevors was breathing in noisy jerks; save for at Lee's, his deep chest contracted spasmodically. Lee, summoning all of the force within him, drove thumb and fingers deeper.

"Got enough?" he panted.

For the last time Trevors strained with him and they rolled like deathlocked mountain-hous. But still Lee's left arm was about Trevors' neck, his legs about his tossing body, his hand at Trevors' throat. Trevors' breath caught, failed him.

Then and then only did a new look come into the bulging eyes. A look of more than fear, of utter, desperate terror. Trevors threw up his hand weakly, then let it fall so that it struck the floor heavily, as dead weight.

Lee's grip at the strangling throat relaxed. But he did not move his hand.

"Got enough?" he panted again.

The answer came brokenly, weakly, almost inarticulate. But it did come and the men drawn close heard it:

"Yes."

"You'll get out of the country?"

"Yes."

Bud Lee drew back and rose, going to the door swiftly. He stooped for his hat and passed out. And as Bayne Trevors got unsteadily to his feet and sank slumping into the chair offered him, two big tears formed in his eyes and rolled down his cheeks. The first tears in many a year, the tears of a strong man broken for the first time in his life.

"Sand did it!" grunted Melvin. "Just Sand Carson."

"I'll stick around 'an' see he moves on," Bud Lee followed Lee to say. "Oh, he'll go. But I'll just tell him how the boys is headed this way by now 'an' it's far 'an' feathers for him if he don't money right along. That's something he couldn't stand right now, 'an' Bud."

He put out his hands and looked Lee's in a grip that made the sore fingers wince. Then swinging upon the heel of his boot, he went back to collect a hundred dollars from Melvin and help Bayne Trevors shape his plans.

But Bud Lee did not wait. "He was on his horse, swaying a little, an arm caught in a rude sling, glad to be out in the late sunlight.

"Fog along, little horse," he was saying dully. "Fog right along. She's waiting, little horse. Judith is waiting! Think of that! That's right—fog right along."

Negro "Convicted" Of Theft By Drop Of The Bible

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Convicted in the eyes of his black brethren of the key, string and Bible court, "Nigger Bill" was taken before Traffic Cop Gooch, at the Union Station Wednesday night.

The six scrapping negroes from an Illinois Railroad gang with Bill in their midst, wanted "a trial right here and now."

Bill was accused of stealing a full suit of clothes from two of his fellow workmen. He was found guilty by them.

"Yuh put a key in de Bible at de Eight" chapter of Proverbs, said one of the negroes. "Then wrap a string 'round it and say:

"Thou shalt not steal. Thy neighbor's clothes."
"Matthew, Luke, Paul and Peter."
"De Bible full at de guilty man's feet."
"Den yuh turn de Bible loose and hold de string. It picked Bill this time."

Questioned by the cop, Bill explained in self-defense:

"Dis my trunk, what I got on. You sees my trunk when you sees me."

Recipes of our Pioneer Mothers for the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills was have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has now spread from shore to shore, and thousands of American women now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

AMERICAN CREED PUBLISHED

Newspaper Man Finds Real Truth in the Bible

VICKSBURG, Miss. — A newspaper man, Charles W. Miller, city editor of the Herald here, has compiled "An American Creed," consisting of passages from the Old and New Testaments. The selections transposed and arranged in such a manner as to preserve the continuity of the Creed unbroken to the end, are said by Mr. Miller to contain "the wholesome truths handed down from the prophets, the Saviour and the apostles."

There are seven quotations from the Old Testament and 21 from the New Testament making a total of more than 300 words in the Creed. It begins with the words of Timothy, "Godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out." The second paragraph is introduced by a passage from Malachi, "Have we not all one Father? Hath not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother by profaning the covenant of our Father?" The Creed closes with these words from Timothy, "Now unto the King, Eternal, Immortal, Invisible, the only Wise God, be Honor and Glory for Ever and Ever."

W. F. Bond, state superintendent of education in Mississippi, writing to the compiler, said: "This is a splendid Creed, and we should like very much to have a copy in the hands of every school child in the state."

Mr. Miller, who has been a newspaper man more than 30 years, said: "In this age of Godless selfishness, the tendency of the times is running steadily and rapidly into a state of unrestricted license, regardless of a high standard of life. Something is needed to assist in turning the attention of old and young to their duty to God and their neighbors. The Holy Bible will give the correct answer to every conceivable question that can be framed by man. It is the rule and guide for humanity."

Dearth Of Ministers Due To Criticism, Low Pay

PITTSBURGH—Constant criticism to which preachers are subjected, low salaries, the lure of counter-culture and the migration from farm to city help contribute to the dearth of ministers, according to Dr. James D. Rankin, professor of theology and sociology in the Pittsburgh Theological seminary.

"From the information I have there are about enough ministers in the United Presbyterian Church to fill, acceptably, three-fourths of the pulpits," said Dr. Rankin. "I believe the same condition holds good in most evangelical churches."

"There are several causes, in which this condition may be traced. One is the spirit of materialism, which places the rich man ahead of the good man, and makes the man of wealth or social or political position a leader in the community, rather than the minister of the gospel. Formerly, the minister was the leader. The term 'person' originally meant 'the person' of the community."

"Ministers are being criticized by their congregations. I have known families to drive away from the church because they did not wish to be in a congregation criticized. A man in most congregations does not have to contend with such criticism."

"The joining of the family altar with frequent working of the radio, which has its effect, it used to be, on the father and mother, is a factor in the decline of the church. In the case of the father, he is not so much interested in the church as he once was. Next, parents want to see their sons get into something that will pay them more money."

"The boys have been going up in the industry for the last few years, but, I believe, not in the proportion they have in other industries and, consequently, the church is losing a young man in choosing a business career will be turning a salary not a salary and probably will make more at the end of even or eight years than the minister will at any time in his life."

"The movement from the country to the cities tends to reduce the number of candidates for the ministry. The city boys have many opportunities to make money. The country boy, as a rule, has more time for meditation, meets fewer temptations and seems to take more naturally to the ministry than the city youth."

"A minister soon becomes too old to suit most congregations and is discarded at a period of life when men in many callings are at the height of their careers. Only in the last few years have the churches begun to provide pensions for their superannuated ministers."

DECLARES HE IS HIGHLY PLEASED WITH NEW REMEDY

Well known Dayton citizen, suffered from sluggish liver, weak kidneys, nervousness, loss of appetite and constipation.

The great herbal remedy, Drees, gave prompt relief and made him feel full of energy.

"I formerly lost from five to eight days a month on account of sickness. I got so much better when I first began taking Drees, but being a conservative man, I waited until I was positive Drees was doing the work, then I was glad to endorse it," says Mr. C. N. Hunsicker, of 14 Orchard ave., Dayton, O.

"My liver was sluggish and I often had dizzy spells, spots floated before my eyes, my tongue was coated, and I had a foul taste in my mouth. My kidneys were weak, and I often had dull, aching pains in my back. After each meal I'd feel very uncomfortable, caused by gastritis, which gave my stomach a full, bloated feeling, often with a burning sensation. I dreaded for night to come, because I was so nervous I could not sleep, but would roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other, and when morning came I would be more worn out than when I retired the night before."

"Since taking Drees all the ailments have disappeared. My bowels act regularly, no more dizzy attacks, the bad taste and foul breath are gone; I stoop and bend over without a pain in my limbs, and all this aches in my back, in the region of my kidneys are gone. I sleep sound all night long, and have to be wakened each morning. I can't say enough in praise of this great remedy, Drees. All druggists now sell Drees and it is being especially introduced in large by Balwin's Central Drug Store, corner Main and High-sts."

PROBING CONFLICT IN MINE UNION

Workers' Committee Takes Up
Clash of Rival Officials

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — (By Associated Press) — W. D. Van Horn, of Terre Haute, Ind., and A. R. Watkins, of Ohio, are in Kansas City, awaiting the arrival of J. M. Zimmerman of Illinois, with whom they will conduct an investigation of the situation in the Kansas coal fields. They are members of the executive board of the National Mine Workers' Association, and plan to investigate the situation which has led to a break between John L. Lewis, international president of the Mine Workers of America, and Alexander Towat, of Pittsburgh, Kansas, president of district 14, United Mine Workers, over the question of whether idle Kansas coal miners shall return to work. Lewis has ordered the miners to return to work, and Howat has denounced his action.

If there existed a device which would register the quantity of vitamins in the human system, the above chart might well illustrate Dr. Radolph's statement, printed below. Science now knows that the body must receive plenty of life-giving vitamins to maintain a fullness of health, strength and energy. Read below how to get vitamins in Vitamin.

PHYSICIANS AT LAST FIND OUT WHAT KEEPS SOME MEN FILLED WITH STRENGTH AND ENERGY WHILE OTHERS BECOME WEAK AND RUN-DOWN

Without Life Giving Vitamines
There Can Be No Fullness of Health and Vitality—How to Tell If Your Body Needs This Vital Substance.

New York (special)—"If I were asked 'What are vitamins?' I should say 'They are life—they are energy—they are power—they give strength and beauty to your body and vigor to your mind. So rapid so pronounced and so amazing are the results produced by the concentrated vitamins known as Vitamin that no matter what anyone says I do not believe that there is anything whatsoever to which this discovery can be compared.'"

Such is the statement made in a recent discourse by Former Health Commissioner John J. Radolph, M. D., late of New York Hospital Staff, and a graduate of the University of Baltimore. Continuing Dr. Radolph said "When you see a man contented to merely 'hold a job—a man who has no other interest, than remaining in his own rut, who is perfectly satisfied with what comes in his pay envelope every week, and is willing to go on with his life without ever amounting to much, you will always find that his lack of interest and enthusiasm is caused by a lowered vitality, a weakened physical condition. He either has a poor appetite or else he is not getting the proper nourishment out of what he eats to build health and strength. Nature puts in certain raw foods a vital life-giving substance which scientists have since the name vitamins, but even though you were to select the very foods which do contain 'vitamins' you would probably not get enough to do you any good for present methods of preparation and cooking rob these foods of their vitamins before they reach your tables. Therefore the man who is weakened, nervous and run-down must get these vitamins in some other way such as by taking the concentrated form called Vitamin if he expects to make himself a keen, red-blooded fellow with the strength, energy, ambition and courage to succeed. By keeping himself fit with Vitamin he at once becomes more powerful mentally, better able to use his talents and ability to passses and his buoyant health makes him so active and alert that he is always ready to reach out and grasp every opportunity which comes his way. Such a man can easily take the leadership and hold it—he has the vim and energy, the brain-power and the money, too. There are, in my opinion, thousands of men, who by taking a short course of Vitamin might readily build themselves up into a position of health, success and power instead of being nervous, irritable weaklings haunted by fear thru the day and tortured by sleeplessness and depression at night. Not until you have taken Vitamin yourself and felt its effects can you form any idea of the vast difference it may quickly make in your health, strength, mental vigor and physical appearance."

SPECIAL GUARANTEE

If after using Vitamin you are not entirely satisfied with the results and are not convinced that it has been worth to you far more than you paid for it, the trial will cost you absolutely nothing. You are to be the sole judge.

LOVE AND MARRIED LIFE

BY IDA MCGLONE GIBSON

SHALL I SURRENDER TO ELIZABETH

Alice and Helen left me soon after the wedding. I went up to the nursery, as I had learned that my baby in my arms was like taking a composing draught. With her tiny head burrowing into my bosom, I could always think better and more clearly.

This time, however, I could not dismiss the feeling of unrest into which Karl's letter had thrown me. I almost wished he had not written me, and yet, I knew that if anything terrible was to come to me, I would feel much more able to bear it if I knew that the steady hand and knew that he would instantly choose me and respectability rather than Elizabeth and the scandal which would ensue. I knew also from the look on his face, as he looked at Elizabeth when we were over at the new house, that he was mine to keep if I wanted him.

John, like most other men, was a coward when it came to facing consequences. That was one thing I had to give Elizabeth Moreland credit for—she, too, lived up to her type. She, too, had the courage to face anything for the man she loved. But, like other loving women, she could not face him with the truth.

Was it because John Gordon was so egotistical? So bound up in himself that he had made quite unhappy the two women who had loved him most? Even while asking myself this question, I gave John credit for not realizing just how he had tortured both Elizabeth and me. To both of us he exerted the same magnetic influence—probably to a much greater degree with Elizabeth than with me. I was quite sure of this, because that very morning I had found another message from Elizabeth, which said: "My world means only you, John, and whatever comes I want you to remember—All thru the long, unhappy years I made one passionate plea; imploring Fate to brush aside the dark despair of Hope deferred. And give me the boon of Love; Without which Life were drear indeed.

In the gray days and months and years That span eternity's far shore—Just sixty minutes filled with love Would make my cup of bliss o'er flow; And I on memories feed for ever more.

One little hour of radiant bliss— One golden hour; Alas! Deaf were ears to which I cried And I went stumbling thru the storm My way o'ercast with clouds and dark; Until you came, I saw the sun Of love shine thru your eyes, I laid my weary head upon your breast And there enfolded by your loving arms I found my hour of gold. DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

LINDSEY IS DEVELOPING A SENSE OF HUMOR

And now the results of my eyebrow-pulling debauch, must be set down, little book. It had several.

In the first place, this morning when I walked into my office (sounds important, doesn't it?) I had with me several caricatures of my sweet young self as seen in the hands of the beauty specialist. They were screamingly funny. I'll say, and dear, understanding Mr. Reade just shouted when he saw them. Then he looked at my shorn but persistent eyebrows. "You certainly are just what we have been looking for for some time, Miss Lindsey," says he, breathlessly. "Any girl that can so cheerfully and cleverly turn herself into copy is worth a dollar a minute to us."

Sweetest words, these. Of course I beamed my joy of his appreciation of me and my pen back at him for we were on such good terms and understood one another so well that I never feel that I have to bluff nor beat about the bush with him.

I sat down for a few minutes and regaled him with a description of my sensations in the beauty parlor, and he laughed until the tears ran down his cheeks.

"Now I know why some girls that we see on the street wear such expressions," said he. "It's agony pure and simple, and to think that it is hauteur, or innocent wonder! Lord bless my soul if it isn't the funniest ever." And there he went off into gales of merriment again.

"To be frank, Miss Lindsey, you can get away with it, somehow or other, but then you can get away with so much, anyhow," was his comment.

After a few more kindly words on both sides, I skipped off to my own particular desk to turn out more elaborate sketches of myself for the "Evening Leader."

Roger Waring came and looked over my shoulder as I was busy at my board, and I heard him snorting with amusement at what he found there.

You cannot imagine how invigorating and pleasing all this masculine appreciation is, for it means that I have "put it over" and with the more "difficult" sex, viola!

There's another reason for my being pleased about my work and its success, namely, that I am making a hit as a humorist! And don't you just know how few women humorists there are in this world? I do, for I have lived with women and chummed with them since my first moment upon this earth.

We are a charming race, as a sex we are interesting, we are even beautiful (some of us at times, we are everything that is most desirable without a doubt, but truth to tell we are sadly self-of-humorous, the majority of us, most of the time).

I feel convinced that it is our training that is at fault, in this case, as in many others, but the great fact remains.

It is for this reason that I desire above all else to be known as a humorist. Between you and me, little book, this is what I am going to work for, and if I work for it, I am sure that I shall attain my desire in the end.

My fellow-workers here seem most interested in my career, and if their praise and encouragement can help me to climb the heights of Fame, why said heights are mine for the asking! So it is a comforting thought this, eh, What?

BOOSTERS OF LEAGUE BALL WILL MEET TO LAY PLANS

(BY JOE BERNSTEIN.)

NINE men of Lima, representative of the leading organizations and interested in the city will meet tonight to undertake further planning for the proposed league that has been originated in this city.

Every organization of a business nature from the Chamber of Commerce to the Lima Ad Club, including the American Legion will have a representative at the discussion table. Baseball men of experience as managers and players will also take part in the conference.

Those who will be present are: J. B. Dugan, city manager of the Ohio Electric and former playing manager of a number of baseball teams in this vicinity; A. J. Stotzenbach, insurance agent and former secretary and director of the Canton Ohio State League team; Jim Morton, secretary of the Lima Retail Merchants Association, Kiwanis club, and former semi-pro star; H. B. Starnett, Lima sporting goods dealer; Bernie Halloran, manager of the Lima Independents; Maurice Rosenbloom, president of the Lima Ad Club; George Hagley, Rotary club, and former baseball star; J. B. Luedke, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and "Costly" Costello, representing the American Legion, and state centerfold for the Lima Independents.

Jobey Kaufman of the Ohio Steel Plant was to be at the meeting, but it was said at his home Thursday that he would be out of town.

The plan of the league as it stands at present will be outlined to the men assembled and further plans will be made for the initial steps to be taken in order that the league may at once be organized.

It is the object of the promoters of the league to provide for games three days a week, a three months schedule and a six team circuit. The other cities proposed are: Ft. Wayne, Springfield, Piqua, Findlay and Marion. These cities have already been informed of the steps taken in Lima and are expected to have a tentative answer as to their stand on the proposition, in the hands of the Lima promoters by the time the meeting is called to order.

HALLORAN APPROVES LEAGUE PLAN

Bernie Halloran, the manager of the Lima Independents and at present the representative team of the city, favors the idea of giving Lima league ball.

Halloran, however, fears for its success, basing his fears upon past experience. This fear, however, was partially allayed by the fact that the old draft law is no longer in operation, and that today a minor league team may develop and sell a star to the big league with profit, instead of having to submit to his being drafted from them.

Lima, in the old days of league ball, had some pretty clever boys who were sent up to the big circuit from here. Lee Fohl was at one time the manager of the Lima outfit.

Halloran, anxious to give Lima the best kind of ball possible, declares that he is ready to get right behind a league proposition if it can be put across.

Upon the meeting tonight, this will hinge largely.

Halloran practically holds the key to the situation since his demand is the one in the city that could be put at the disposal of a league team with the least effort and cost.

ROBINSON AND OWNER EBBETS OF THE DODGERS NOW SEE VICTORY AHEAD

The Brooklyn Dodgers are out in front in the National league race and Manager Wilbert Robinson is wearing a broad smile. Owner Charlie Ebbets is beginning to figure on the world series coin. The Cincinnati Reds are a close second, however, and the race is by no means won.

BIG FIELD AT TOURNAMENT EXPECTED

TOLEDO — Golfing stars from various parts of the country are striking for the national open tournament under the auspices of the United States Golf Association over the invitational course here next week.

Twenty-five or more players are expected in early today from Chicago. The tournament committee is figuring on the arrival of about 60 contestants by tomorrow and not less than 100 are looked for by Sunday.

The tournament committee which expressed disappointment over the reported failure of Charles (Chick) Evans to enter, learned today that Evans' name had been omitted thru a mistake of his secretary.

SANDLOT TEAMS HIT SNAG; SCHEDULE CONTINUES

INDUSTRIAL league baseball is threatened with a premature finish this season. Two teams have struck snags that give evidence of their being able to complete the running this year. It is thought however, that should the two teams be forced to drop out of the race for the Starrett cup, that the remaining six will be able to complete the season's schedule of their own games.

Gramm Bernstein, due to a reorganization of the plant has been forced to stop its activities for a number of weeks and the result is that a number of their employees who are active on the baseball team will be unable to play as from the factory.

East Iron is the other team affected. Four players, according to reports from that factory, including their star pitcher, Roho, have been released from work. The result there is that the four men who are considered the best on the team have been lost. They are: Roho, Loutzenheizer, first base, Roberts, center field, and Gilroy, left field.

Nevertheless, the schedule for Saturday will stand, according to Secretary Biddle in charge of the league, and the games will play if there is any possible chance. Gramm Bernstein has been granted the right, by the commission at the head of the league, to use outside players until the reorganization of the plant is affected. Nothing has as yet been done in the case of the East Iron outfit, since it's case did not come to the attention of the commission until late this week.

The schedule for Saturday is Ohio Steel vs Solar, Gramm Bernstein vs Chalmers, East Iron vs Garford, Locomotive vs Deisel, Wemmer.

STARRETT ORDERS TRACK MEDALS

H. H. Starrett Lima sporting goods dealer brought a sample track and field medal to the sporting editor of the News Friday to exhibit the award that he has ordered for the winners of the first annual Industrial Field and Track meet to be held Labor Day.

Starrett announced that he has ordered all 45 medals that are necessary for the 15 events on the program as his gift to the Lima Industrial Athletic Association.

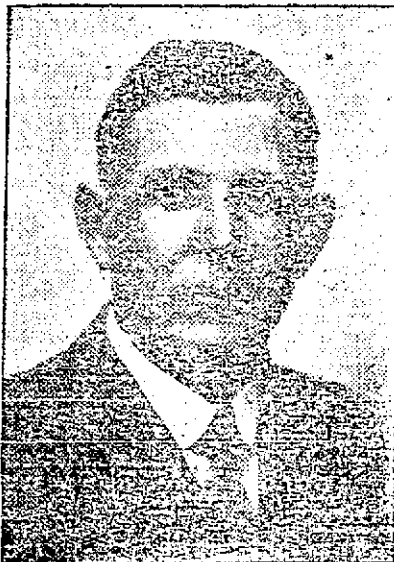

There will be three for each event—a gold medal for first prize, a silver for second, and a bronze for third. Plans will be laid at the next meeting of the Association for the presentation of the awards. It is probable that the presentation will be made immediately after the meet.

LIMA WINS

Lima golfers defeated Piqua Thursday at the Shawnee country club when the local players took 54 points to Piqua's 24.

Thirty men from each city were entered in the match. Lima held the edge through.

PROVES GOOD

Earl Smith was with the Browns three years before it was discovered he is a capable third baseman, as well as above the average as an outfielder. When Jimmy Austin was hurt, Frank Thompson was sent to third by Manager Burke, but Thompson failed so miserably that in desperation Smith who has been doing bench duty all season was sent to the far corner. He has done some mighty good work there, all things considered.

EXHIBITION GAM SCHEDULED

TOLEDO — The New York American club will play an exhibition game with the Toledo club of the American Association here on Wednesday, September 13. It was announced today by Roger Bresnahan, president of the American Association, that one of the largest cash inducements ever asked for a single ball game, was guaranteed by Bresnahan for the engagement.

MADE SCOUT

The veteran Jack McCarthy, one-time National league outfielder, who makes his home in Chicago, has been signed by President Johnny Powers of Los Angeles to act as scout for the Angels in the east. McCarthy was Powers' manager when Powers owned the Danville club in the Three-I league.

ADA — Wheeler Irwin has been booked as poultry judge by several nearby county fairs. He is in Xenia this week.

INDIAN RESERVES BROKEN UP FOR VETERAN FARMS

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. — Mistawasis, Muskeg and Big River Indian reserves have been broken up by the Canadian Government into farms that have been sold to soldier settlers. More than 150 veterans of the war have bought the land for which they will pay in twenty-five annual installments.

The farm units on the reserve range from 200 to 300 acres, the price being from $1,881 to $4,960.

On the Mistawasis reserve there are fifty-five farm units; on the Muskeg thirty-three, and on the Big River seventy-three.

MUTT AND JEFF—There's Such a Thing as Wasting Your Ammunition

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By VIC MANUS

Short Shavings

Small. If it were not for the fact that the incident of the morning was a story that was not exactly unique, but on the other hand, you know how Brown used to show his disapproval of the story, he rose and left the room.

How noble of Mr. Brown! exclaimed his wife. And, John, returned his wife, what was the story Mr. Green told you?

The morning is interrupted by the entrance of one who made his way to the platform and whispered excitedly to the chairman.

"Mr. Smith in the audience," he informed that his house is this.

Forty men sprang to their feet. "It is the house of Mr. John Smith," cried the chairman.

"Think you are so fervent?" cried one of our men, resuming his seat.

"Well," said Lamar Comstock, "I reckon I've done a pretty good afternoon's work."

But all you did," continued the jenkins, contemptuously, "was to sit on the fence and whistle."

Yes, but what I whistled up was the family cork board."

How Soviet Russia Is Compelling Recognition

In all the fighting that has been going on in Eastern Europe and in the negotiations involving Moscow and Warsaw and Paris and London there is but one certainty, observes the New York Globe, that is, that the situation is approaching what we may call a "show down." "Shaking hands with murder" is Lord Northcliffe's phrase, but as the New York Sun is forced to agree the murderer is now in a position to say whether we shall shake hands with him or whether war-weary Western Europe must like him against him. Strange as it may seem, says the Sun, "the international vagabond of 1919 has gained the amazing position of being in control of European stability, and perhaps of World stability in the year, 1920."

The Russian situation is the biggest problem that America and the rest of the world has to face to-day, and in the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for August 7th the most recent phases of this perplexing complication is dealt with comprehensively.
